A wild land where mountains drop straight into the sea and delightful towns such as Kotor and Perast, cling to the coastline on the route south from the border with Croatia.

The border of Montenegro is only about 40 km away from Dubrovnik.

In Montenegro we drive along the main coastal road through few small and nice places directly by the sea up to the place Kamenari from where we take the ferry to the other side of the channel.

On the drive from the ferry to Kotor, we will make one more stop to have a unique view onto the whole Kotor-Risan Bay.

In Kotor you will have about 2.5 hours time, to enjoy the beauties and the historical-cultural richness of this town, including 1 hour accompanied by a local licensed guide.

The old town of Kotor is a well-obtained centre, built between the 12. and the 14. Century, with many Latin and Gothic churches, facades, palaces and museums.

After visiting Kotor, we will make a coffee break in Perast from where we will have also a short boat drive to the islands "Lady of the Rock". The small island called Our Lady of the Rock (Gospa od Skrpjela) is a man-made islet, with a sailors' votive shrine by the same name.

Please do not forget to take your passport or an identity card with you on this trip and of course a camera with enough memory so you can think of this great day you had, over and over.
